Operating Permit Program: Notice of Reporting Requirements for Compliance Certifications

AGENCY: Environmental Protection Agency (EPA).

ACTION: Notice; reporting requirements for compliance certifications.

SUMMARY: Under the state operating permit programs compliance certification requirements, facilities subject to the Title V operating permit program are required to submit compliance certifications to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and the permitting authority. EPA is providing notice that submittal of Title V compliance certifications to the Region 5 authorized State permitting authorities, except Michigan, fulfills the reporting requirements. This allows for EPA and the delegated State agencies to meet air quality goals while streamlining reporting requirements and eliminating the duplication of paperwork by regulated facilities.
